How can I instruct you?

You can contact us to give us instructions by post, phone, or email on the contact number or details mentioned on page 1 of this FSG.

Who is responsible for the financial services provided?

You may also receive services from us which are authorised by another licensee, for example, when we provide you with Resilium products as authorised representative of Resilium Pty Ltd ABN 40 098 080 810 (Resilium). We will tell you when we are providing you with services as authorised representative of another licensee and provide you with a separate FSG as required.

What kinds of financial services are we authorised to provide and what kinds of financial product/s do those services relate to?

We are authorised under Resilium Insurance Broking's Australian Financial Services License to provide general and personal financial product advice about general insurance products. We are also authorised to arrange for the issue of general insurance products. When we provide you with services as authorised representative of Resilium Insurance Broking we will do this on your behalf as your broker unless we tell you otherwise.

Will I receive tailored advice?

We may provide you with personal advice or general advice. We will tell you what level of advice we are providing when we provide it.

Sometimes we may need information about your personal objectives, details of your current financial situation and any other relevant information, so that we can arrange insurance policies for you or to give you advice about your insurance needs. We will ask you for the details that we need to know.

If we do not ask, or if you do not give us all of the information we ask for, any advice you receive may not be appropriate to your needs, objectives and financial situation.

Where we provide you with advice about your insurance arrangements, that advice is current at the time that we give it. We will review your insurance arrangements when you inform us about changes in your circumstances, at the time of any scheduled status review.

What information do we maintain about you and how you can access it?

We are committed to protecting your privacy. We use the information you provide to advise about and assist with your insurance needs.

How will I pay for the services provided?

Payment for the services we provide to you that are authorised by Resilium Insurance Broking are payable directly to Resilium Insurance Broking. For each insurance product, the insurer will charge a premium that includes any relevant taxes, charges and levies. Resilium Insurance Broking will receive a payment based on a percentage of this premium (excluding relevant taxes, charges and levies) called commission, which is paid to Resilium Insurance Broking by the insurers. In some cases, you will also be charged a broker fee. These will all be shown on the invoice that is sent to you.

You can choose to pay for the services we provide to you that are authorised by Resilium Insurance Broking by any of the payment methods set out in the invoice. You are required to pay Resilium Insurance Broking within the time set out on the invoice.

If there is a refund or reduction of your premium as a result of a cancellation or alteration to a policy or based on a term of your policy (such as a premium adjustment provision), we will retain any fee we have charged you. We will also retain commission depending on our arrangements with the insurer, or charge you a cancellation fee equal to the reduction in commission.

When you pay us your premium for products arranged by us as authorised by Resilium Insurance Broking your premium will be banked into Resilium Insurance Broking's trust account. Resilium Insurance Broking will retain the commission from the premium you pay us and remit the balance to the insurer in accordance with Resilium Insurance Broking arrangements with the insurer. Resilium Insurance Broking will earn interest on the premium while it is in their trust account or Resilium Insurance Broking may invest the premium and earn a return. Resilium Insurance Broking will retain any interest or return on investment earned on the premium.

Will anyone be paid a fee for referring you to us?

If we give you personal advice as a result of someone referring you to us and if we pay them a fee or commission in relation to that referral, our Personal Advice Letter or Statement of Advice to you will set out that fee or commission.

How are any commissions, fees or other benefits calculated for providing the financial services?

The commission the Insurer pays Resilium Insurance Broking will be calculated based on the following formula:

$$P \times Y\% = X$$

In this formula:

P = the amount you pay for any insurance policy (less any government fees or charges included in that amount).

Y% = the percentage commission paid by the insurer.

X = the Commission Resilium Insurance Broking receives.

The commission Resilium Insurance Broking receives varies between 0% and 40%.

We receive between 0% and 90% from Resilium Insurance Broking from the commission they receive from the insurer for each policy we arrange for you.

We may also charge you a broker fee in addition to commission when you enter into an insurance policy. The amount of the fee will depend on the complexity of the services we are providing. The amount of any broker fee charged will be shown on your invoice.

We do not often pay any commissions, fees or benefits to others who refer you to us. If we do, we will pay commissions to those people out of the commission and fees passed to us by Resilium Insurance Broking (not in addition to those amounts), these are detailed in the previous section. Our employees that will assist you with your insurance needs will be paid a market salary.

If we give you (as a Retail client) personal advice, we will inform you of any fees, commission or other payments we, our associates or anyone referring you to us will receive in relation to the policies that are the subject of the advice.

If we do not give you personal advice and you are a retail client, you may request information about any fees, commission or other payments we, our associates or anyone referring you to us will receive in relation to the policies we arrange provided your request is made within a reasonable time after this FSG is provided.
